Opinions of the "PRESS"

Director Nagathihalli Chandrashekar has brilliantly handled the subject. This film is laced with wit, humor and sarcasm. A family entertainer combined with sentiment and a message for all. - TIMES OF INDIA (with 4 Star grading)

It is not often that you get to see a new Nagathihalli Chandrashekar film, being one of the few film makers with a sense of purpose other than box office. His films are eagerly awaited. And he does not disappoint. This for the mind and soul. - BANGALORE MIRROR

Nagathihalli Chandrashekar's films are known to be for the family and an intellectual audience. Rangayana Raghu steals the show. The director has exposed the true face of opportunists in the society. It is worth a watch, but mind you, not all dialogues in the film are to be tried at home! - INDIAN EXPRESS

'Olave Jeevana Lekkachaara' ultimately becomes a cultivated taste. Nagathihalli succeeds in putting his ideas across quite well. - DECCAN HERALD
